MAYOR'S MINUTE

Hudson's WWDC Level 1 Master Plan is waiting for State Legislative approval. Flood Mitigation: the Popo Agie Conservation District agreed to assist us with our project. Hudson applied for two FEMA grants for an engineer report on this project. The sewer lift station parts are delayed but should be installed mid-March unless delayed. Hudson's Digital sign (donated by the WRVC) is installed and working! Hudson's ballpark and cemetery committees were formed and our fundraising comedy night, despite the ugly weather, was a success! Hudson's Water Meter Project is ready to start the bidding process. I continue working with the Wyoming Business Council for assistance on improvements to Hudson's Main Street. The FCAG letter of interest will be submitted to the Governor's State Shooting Complex Task Force by the end of the month. God's Pantry is open and providing food and assistance for the needy! Hudson code enforcement has begun with pet licensing, other code enforcement is coming next. Frank's Meats waterline project bid opening is February 29. – Sherry Oler

Code Compliance Corner

Hi my brothers and sisters, my name is Tim and I am your new Code Enforcement Officer. My goal is to help our town and the wonderful residents who call Hudson home. We've received many calls of concern regarding dogs at large. As a reminder, all dogs must be registered. For convenience, I will be hosting a Dog Registration Day, Saturday, March 9th from Noon until 2:00 p.m. at Town Hall. Please bring proof of vaccination for each dog. Thank you! -Tim Pawol
